

YEAR OF MERCY – LENTEN JOURNEY- WEEK 5

Lent - A Time To Ponder Deeply

Scripture: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. Leviticus 19:2

Speaking to his weekly general audience in St. Peter's square just one day after launching his global Jubilee year of mercy, the pontiff said that "only a merciful church shines." The Holy Father stated further that in our era of deep changes, the church is called to offer its particular contribution, making visible the signs of the presence and closeness of God.

It is true this Jubilee year is a special time called by the Catholic Church to receive blessings and pardon from God and remission of sins. He stated that "the necessary work of renewal of the Church's institutions and structures is a means that must bring us to make alive and enlivened the experience of God's Mercy that alone can guarantee a church that is a city upon a hill that cannot remain hidden." National Catholic Register

He called the Jubilee a "privileged moment" in which the church "may learn to choose only that which God loves most - forgiving His children, having mercy on them, in order that they may, in turn, forgive their brothers and sisters, shining as torches of God's Mercy in the world." He is calling the Ecclesial Church to be a lighthouse for all God's children extending mercy, forgiveness, love and welcoming.

Remember the whole church is called to Conversion and Holiness.

We are the Living Church.

It is by living our lives and offering our own Christian witness in our everyday occupations that we are called to become holy: each of us in the condition and state of life in which we find ourselves. Every state-religious, married, single leads us to sanctity, if lived in communion with the Lord and in the service of one's neighbor.

Prayer refrain: I open the Door of my Heart to you.

- Banish my fear, O Lord. Be my light and my strength...R
- Help me, O God, to live with you in a new way...R
- Precious Savior, you gave yourself for others. Guide me in my service to others...R
- Help me O Lord to come to you for forgiveness and mercy...R
- Renew my trust in you my God...R
- Gracious God, please turn my mourning into dancing...R
- Loving Jesus I offer you my suffering as my prayer today...R
- Help us Lord in the Catholic Women's league to be witnesses of forgiveness and mercy...R

Every prayer of petition becomes a prayer of thanksgiving and praise as well, precisely because it is a prayer of Hope. We put our lives in the hands of God. There we are safe and loved.

My God within me I adore you.

Fifth Sunday of Lent March 13, 2016

"Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

-John 8:7-

Spiritual Works of Mercy are acts of compassion, as listed below, by which we help our neighbors with their emotional and spiritual needs;

counsel the doubtful instruct the ignorant admonish sinners comfort the afflicted forgive offenses bear wrongs patiently pray for the living and the dead

Corporal Works of Mercy are these kind acts by which we help our neighbors with their material and physical needs;

*feed the hungry
give drink to the thirsty clothe the naked shelter the homeless visit the sick
visit the imprisoned bury the dead*

The Triduum

As a church we enter into the most Holiest of weeks as we recall the tremendous sacrifice Christ paid for us. The Triduum, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter, can be seen as one continuous liturgy.

On Holy Thursday we recall the Lord's institution of the Eucharist and His mandate for us to "wash feet." At the end of the mass we will have a solemn procession from the church to the Parish Hall. As we make our way, we sing the ancient hymn associated with this day. Afterwards, the Blessed Sacrament will be moved to the Francis Room until midnight. Just as Jesus asked the disciples to "watch and pray" the Church has used these few hours as a time of prayer and reflection.

On Good Friday we remember Christ's ultimate sacrifice on the cross. During the service we will come forward and venerate the cross as we wish; with a kiss, a bow, or signing yourself with a cross. As you approach the cross we ask that there be four abreast.

At the Easter Vigil we will gather outside in the courtyard for the blessing of the Easter fire. Please use both entrances to enter the church. Once inside we begin the reading of our past which culminates in the account of the Resurrection. Those to be baptized will process to the waters of new life.

Please join us for all of these moving and spiritual moments.

ShareLife Sunday - March 13, 2016

"Agencies are lifesaving and life-restoring to those who regularly rely on them. Families are working through crises and are healing. People with developmental challenges are supported as they experience a sense of self-worth and fulfilment in their daily activities. Seniors are living independently, yet have access to the social services and care they need. Refugees and new Canadians are guided toward a stable, productive livelihood in their newfound home. Please prayerfully consider today how you can support ShareLife," -Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto
