November 4, 2018
The Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Principal Laws of Social Life

The great commandment of the Hebrew covenant, ratified by Jesus as the greatest commandment, is to love God above all else and with all we have.

In our own day we continue to violate this commandment with the various idolatries that infect our public life: worship of the almighty dollar, adoration at the altar of capitalism, religious reverence for 'people's way of life.'

Jesus did not invent the second greatest commandment, either. His contribution was to link it with the first, to tie together love of God with love of neighbour.

Just as we violate the first commandment, so we violate the second one as well: we discriminate against our neighbour, we use our political and economic power to oppress our neighbour, we overwork and underpay our neighbour, we physically abuse our neighbour, we lock our neighbour up and forget about him, we seem to do many things that are not love of neighbour.

"Love God with all your heart and love your neighbour as yourself." It seems so simple, but our experience tells us otherwise.

One may not take as the ultimate criteria in economic life the interests of individuals or organized groups, nor unregulated competition, nor excessive power on the part of the wealthy, nor the vain honor of the nation or its desire for domination, nor anything of this sort. Rather, it is necessary that economic undertakings be governed by justice and charity as the principle laws of social life.

Pope John XXIII, Mater et Magistra, 1961:38-39

News from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The Joy of Giving (cont.)

We give a gift pleasing to Jesus when we care for a sick person, spend time with a difficult person, help someone for the sake of helping, or forgive someone who has hurt us. These are gifts freely given, and they cannot be lacking in the lives of Christians. Jesus reminds us that if we only love those who love us, we do as the pagans do (cf. Mt.5-46-47). Today let us look at our hands, so often empty of love, and let us try to think of some gift that we can give without expecting anything in return. ~Pope Francis

We have need of a working microwave, laptop computer, cereal/soup bowls, flatware, baking items. Thank you for your continuing generosity. Call 416-390-9495.

Remembering Our Loved Ones

As is the tradition, a "Book of the Deceased" will be placed in the church by the baptismal font for the whole month of November. Here one may enter the name(s) of non-parishioners who have died during the year to be remembered in prayer.

Happy are those who have died in the Lord.

*Let them rest from their labours,
for their good deeds go with them.*

~ Revelation 14.13

'Vocation Seeds'

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (November 4, 2018)

"To love Him with all the heart and with all the understanding, and with all the strength" and "to love one's neighbour as oneself" are the greatest commandments. If you feel that God is calling you to serve Him as a priest, religious or deacon visit the website: www.vocationtoronto.ca; www.franciscans.org or speak with one of the friars.

And now, a word from our Pastor:

"Where'd they go?"

Each week at the 10:00 am Liturgy, right after the opening prayer (the Collect), we send our young children to the Parish Centre. There they celebrate the Liturgy of the Word (Mass Readings) in a translation of the Scripture that they can grasp. They sing an Alleluia, interact in reflecting on the Scripture readings, say a form of the Creed and offer intercessions before returning to us.

Right after the homily, we send our catechumens (those adults who are preparing for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) to the Parish Centre. While we celebrate the portion called the Liturgy of the Eucharist, they extend the Liturgy of the Word as they continue to "break open" the Scripture readings and reflection of the day. Together they pray and explore what God's Word is saying to them as they make their journey to the Sacraments.

As our catechumens and children depart each week they remind us of the importance of the Liturgy of the Word in our Mass and in our lives. When the Scriptures are read, it is the voice of God which speaks to us. We celebrate the Word in song and reverence because the Lord is present in the Word He speaks.

Our thanks to those ministers who lead our children in celebrating the Liturgy of the Word: Evan Chan, Antoinette Duarte, Ann Fellin, Maria Martin, Lisa Mattam, Aimee Oster, Brenda Schabert and Nancy Vanseader and to those catechists who lead our catechumens in extending the Liturgy of the Word: Corrine Evanoff, Moira McKeown, Teresa Sansom and Gregory Beath.

We commend †Raymond Dwart and †Christopher Al McDonell into the hands of our God and pray for the gift of peace to their families as they mourn their passing.
