The Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Genuine Service of Others

The First Reading is from the third song of the Servant of Yahweh found in the book of Isaiah. Service is a theme of this liturgy, which links it to the theme of peace. After asking God to “give peace and to hear the prayers of your servant,” we pray that God will “show us how great is the call to serve, that we may share in the peace of Christ.”

The service that our faith calls for is genuine service, the actual performance of deeds that benefit those in need. James talks about this kind of service: what good is it, he asks, if we wish others well “but do not meet their bodily needs.”

The problem with commitment to genuine service of others is that it threatens the people of this world, who do not want to carry the burden of caring for people who have nothing to wear and no food for the day. The result is that those who work for peace in society by serving the needy must suffer.

Peter did not understand this principle at first, thinking that liberation could come without the need for suffering. Jesus has to correct him and teach him God’s standard: the Christian life of service amounts to carrying one’s cross in the footsteps of Jesus. The struggle for justice is no party!

Inspired by no earthly ambition, the Church seeks but a solitary goal: to carry forward the work of Christ Himself under the lead of the befriending Spirit. And Christ entered this world to give witness to the truth, to rescue and not to sit in judgment, to serve and not to be served.

Theology and Tea

To all theological tea drinkers, T&T:

Let's start our time together this semester with a special session on our Church and the dominant issue of the abuse and cover-ups. We need to talk and pray, not to solve, but to understand the tension and climate in the Church today.

We will begin our investigation September 27th after Mass at 9:30 am. Bring a friend, or even an enemy, if you wish.

See you soon, ~ Friar Mark

September 18 ~ Love at the Heart of the Cosmos:

What is the meaning of Evolutionary Consciousness in the writings of Sr. Ilia Delio? Today more than ever we need to understand and grapple with the profound link between science and religion. Franciscan Sister Ilia Delio in her writing as a scientist and as a theologian invites us to ponder how love is at the heart of the ever-expanding cosmos. ~Presentation by Maureen McDonnell.

Flyers with the dates and programme topics are available at the back of the church for you to take home! All are welcome! There is no monetary cost for this program. For more information contact Maureen McDonnell at 416-447-5571 ext. 550 or maureen@st-bonaventure.ca

And now, a word from our Pastor:

Our prayers and support go to Ken, (Yiming) Christina, (Jialin) Gary and David whom we welcomed into the Order of Catechumens on Sunday. They are on their faith journey toward the Sacraments and full membership in our Catholic Church. We are honored that they wish to join us and congratulations to us, St. Bonaventure Parish. Our catechumens' desire to join us is a testimony to the strong faith and witness of our community.

Our thanks to the Knights of Columbus for sponsoring our parish barbeque. It was a wonderful opportunity to gather as friends in faith. Thank you to the Catholic Women's League for sponsoring the Red Sand Project and calling us to prayer and action on behalf of those enslaved by human trafficking.

News from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Remember the more you give yourselves to others, the more you will receive and be happy! ~ Pope Francis

For those who took home information about our Society after Omar Ellis' presentation on Sunday and wish to become more involved as a volunteer, please phone Jack or Judy at 416-390-9495 to give us your name, phone number and email if you didn't already sign up. Alternatively, you may leave your application at the Church Ministry centre and we will get in touch with you. Our next meeting is October 17, 2018, 7:15 pm, Bonaventure Room. Special Request: A single mother with three preschoolers would like a working DVD player. The TV only brings in one station.

God's Invitation, Our Response: Catechumens in our Midst

The parish community has an important responsibility to support these men and women --- Catechumens --- as they are initiated into Christian discipleship. Sponsors from the parish promise to accompany the Catechumens during this period of formation, which normally lasts at least a year. Nevertheless, all of us are called to pray for our Catechumens, show them much hospitality, and give witness to what God is doing in the midst of our great parish and the world at large.

During the 10:00 am Mass this Sunday, September 16th, we will accept Christina, David, Gary, and Ken into the Catechumenate. May God continue to bless them on their journey of faith. May God bless us as we support them.

James 2:14-18 – Faith and good works
