September 23, 2018
The Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In Pope Francis' message for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, he says that when we receive one migrant or refugee child, it teaches us to welcome others. What does giving a welcome have to do with faith, hope and love? Why do you think Jesus came as a child, small and weak?

"Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but Him who sent me" (Mk 9:37; cf. Mt18:5; Lk9:48; Jn13:20). With these words, the Evangelists remind the Christian community of Jesus' teaching, which both inspires and challenges. This phrase traces the sure path which leads to God; it begins with the smallest and, through the grace of our Savior, it grows into the practice of welcoming others. To be welcoming is a necessary condition for making this journey a concrete reality: God made Himself one of us. In Jesus God became a child, and the openness of faith to God, which nourishes hope, is expressed in loving proximity to the smallest and the weakest. Charity, faith and hope are all activity present in the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Way to go Maureen McDonnell, director of MMA, the Advisory Board and participants. You are apostles spreading the Word.

News from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Only the merciful are like God the Father. 'Be merciful, as your Father is merciful.'
~ Pope Francis

We are assisting a woman who has finally found geared-to-income housing in our area but lost all her furniture in storage as she could not afford the fees. She has a date with the Furniture Bank and we have provided her with a bed, but she could use help with acquiring the following: cutlery, 6-8 dinner plates, kitchen knives, waste bin, recycling bin, tea kettle, fry pan, lamp, small area rug, bedroom curtains (72"x 72"), and a night light. If you can help, please leave your name and phone number at the Ministry Centre or call Jack or Judy at 416-390-9495. Thank you for your continuing support and generosity.

CWL Red Sand Project

It is hard to miss the red sand that is meandering through the cracks of our church sidewalk. The red sand represents the vulnerable young women who fall through the metaphorical cracks in our society. At last Sunday's CWL meeting on Human Trafficking, those who attended heard a dynamic talk by Katarina Macleod who shared her personal experience of being trafficked as a young girl. She spoke of the prevalence of this vicious and growing crime so common in our society today – and in our own neighbourhoods! The Red Sand Project, through its sidewalk interventions, builds awareness about Human Trafficking and creates opportunities for people to ask questions, start discussions, and take action against the vulnerabilities that can lead to young women being trafficked.
