September 30, 2018
The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

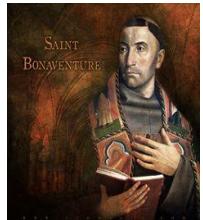

Today's readings make a clear distinction between our desires for worldly riches versus the riches that we receive as a result of just living by following God's law. The riches of the world easily seem more appealing at first glance – status, power, wealth, material things. They seem to bring with them freedom, opportunities and comfort. Wealth in and of itself is not a bad thing. What matters is how one acquires it and what one does with it.

Pope John Paul I once said "It is not wrong to want to live better; what is wrong is a style of life which is presumed to be better when it is directed towards 'having' rather than 'being,' and which wants to have more, not in order to be more but in order to spend life in enjoyment as an end in itself." The reading from James sends a warning specifically to the rich who oppress others for their own benefit.

If we can re-direct our worldly riches and possessions to serve us in the way that helps us gather eternal treasures, we can be rewarded with eternal life in the kingdom of God. This has already begun here on earth through the good fruits that result from spirituality-healthy choices and just actions: peace, joy, kindness, goodness, charity and well-being.

Natalia Kononenko, Toronto, ON.

And now, a word from our Pastor:

Jesus said: "I am the light of the world." He must have been napping last Sunday morning when the power went out. Thanks to Luigi Gabriele who got our PA system working and the Hydro crews who repaired the Hydro transformer and restored power.

On Wednesday we celebrated the Feast of the Canadian Martyrs: St. Jean De Brébeuf, Isaac Jogues and their companions, the first to bring the Gospel to our country. As we continue to worship and serve, we stand on their shoulders.

Please remember Fr. Joe Madden, OFM Conv., in a prayer. He is experiencing some health issues. Also, please remember †Fr. George Sandor, OFM Conv., whose anniversary of death was Sept. 25. Thank you for your goodness. ~ Dennis

News from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Let us offer our lives in service and in joy, to make known to everyone that Jesus Christ is our only hope! ~Pope Francis

Your contributions to our poor boxes as well as donations of the requested household items have allowed us to assist those who are struggling to make ends meet in our community. The increasing cost of food and sky-high rents contribute to this struggle for persons on a fixed income or those working for the minimum wage (often part-time). Thank you for your continuing generosity. Our next meeting is Wednesday, October 17, 2018, 7:15 pm in the Bonaventure Room. All interested in membership are welcome. Call 416-390-9495 for more information.
